A Taste For Steaks

We, at Jensens Bøfhus, have chosen that all our steaks come from beef cattle and the meat is carefully selected by our butchers and chefs.

We've chosen to use meat from selected beef breeds that are best suited for steaks.

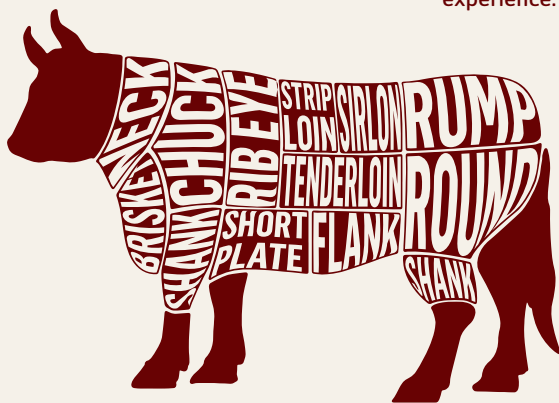

Our cattle receive the best treatment grass-fed and are free from milking pumps.

The result? Meat that forms naturally and tastes heavenly.

Bon appétit!

Ribeye is a juicy and flavourful steak from the upper part of the beef loin, characterized by rich marbling, which provides an intense flavour and tenderness.

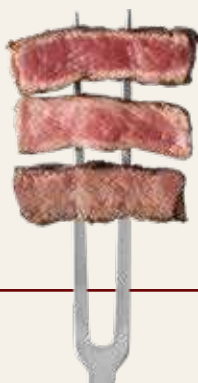

Rump steak is a juicy piece of meat from the hindquarter, known for its excellent combination of marbling and flavour. Rump steak offers a flavourful and tender meat experience.

Tenderloin is a tender and lean cut of meat, known for its delicate texture and mild flavour.
