A Taste For Steaks

We, at Jensens Bøfhus, have chosen that all our steaks come from beef cattle. The meat is carefully selected by our butchers and chefs.

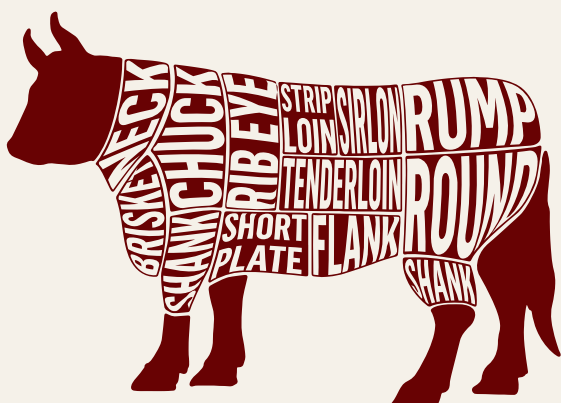

We select beef cattle breeds that are best suited for steaks.

Our cattle receive the best treatment – grass-fed and free from milk pumps. The result is meat that develops naturally and tastes heavenly.

Bon appétit!

Ribeye is characterized by rich marbling of fat, which gives it a juicy and flavourful quality.

Rump steak is characterized by its classic combination of slight marbling and robust flavour.

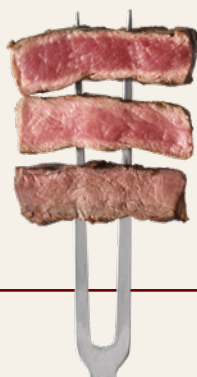

Tenderloin is characterized by its tenderness, delicate texture, and mild flavour.
